Our honeymoon you helped us plan to Jamaica was simply awesome. A few steps off the private back patio was the light sandy beach, the hammock and the winding path we loved to take walks on through all the incredible trees and foliage. We best touch was the people - they're just so cool and easy going. "yea man" and "no problem!"

Sandra Beeton
Burlington, ON

We didn't get to thank you for the wonderful planning you did for our honeymoon back in July. Everything from the time we got the air port to leaving was so well organized.

We went to Tahiti, Moorea and Bora Bora in July. It was the most amazing place we'd ever been to. From the minute we stepped off the plane, we felt like we were in a dream.

William McCarthy

Founded in 1827, the University of Toronto is Canada's leading research-intensive university. With roughly 70,000 students, 3,000 faculty and over 300 undergraduate programs, Maclean's magazine notes in its annual report that 'Canada's top-ranked Medical-Doctoral university is a place where learning is the order of the day'. Spanning three campuses in the Greater Toronto Area and Mississauga, it houses 14 professional faculties, 32 libraries, 7 colleges and has links to 9 teaching hospitals.

A liberal arts education is the heart of the undergraduate curriculum at Toronto, and the Faculty of Arts and Science has more

Authentic Lebanese Cuisine

the Cedar grill

Welcome to The Cedar Grill!

We are the one and only Lebanese Cuisine restaurant in Newmarket. Lebanese Cuisine (Arabic: المأكولات اللبنانية) or foods from Lebanon, are considered a Mediterranean delicacy consisting of a variety of fresh vegetarian recipes, salads and stews all seasoned with a flavorsome combination of herbs and spices. One of the most world known Lebanese specialties is called the Maza, also written "Mezze", which is a selection of appetizers: olives, cheeses, Labanee, or small portions also known as muqabbalat (starters).

As with most Mediterranean cuisines, Lebanese cuisine is considered to be a very balanced, healthy diet.

The cuisine of Lebanon is the epitome of the Mediterranean. It includes an abundance of starches, fruits, vegetables, fresh fish and seafood; animal fats are consumed sparingly. Poultry is eaten more often than red meat, and when red meat is eaten it is usually lamb. It also includes copious amounts of garlic and olive oil, often seasoned by lemon juice. No ordinary meat goes by in Lebanon that does not include these ingredients. Most often foods are either grilled, baked or sautéed in oil, butter or cream is rarely used other than in a few desserts. Vegetables are often eaten raw or pickled as well as cooked. While the cuisine of Lebanon doesn't boast an entire repertoire of sauces, it focuses on herbs, spices and the freshness of ingredients, the assortment of dips and combinations are almost infinite. The food is full of robust, earthy flavors and, like most Mediterranean countries, much of what the Lebanese eat is dictated by the seasons.
